Headline:
Wet and windy Sunday. Cloudy, rain for some on Monday.

Today:
A windy day, with gales over high ground. Some brightness is likely early morning but it'll be generally cloudy with outbreaks of rain, these more frequent and occasionally heavy in western parts. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
Remaining wet and windy, with gales and frequent spells of rain on hills, heavy at times. Rain lighter and less frequent elsewhere. A mild night. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Monday:
Wind gradually easing through the day, with rain becoming light and confined to high ground. Milder. Some clear spells developing in the east during the evening. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Tuesday less windy, dry with warm sunny spells developing. Wednesday turning cloudier and cooler as rain moves south. Cold, perhaps frosty initially on Thursday, then dry with sunny spells.
